Don't miss J & P Grain Solutions at the 2009 MATE

BILLINGS, MONT.- J & P Grain Solutions of Recluse, Wyoming will be one booth that you will want to visit while at the 33rd annual Montana Agri-Trade Exposition (MATE Show), Billings Home & Garden Show and Health & Fitness Expo, February 19-21, at the MetraPark in Billings.

J & P Grains Solutions is a family owned grain handling business established in 2008. Using their products and services, they can turn your four man operation into a one man operation with just a push of a button.

This year at the MATE, J & P Grains Solutions will showcase many products in their booth. Stop by to view their bin display which will demonstrate the bin roof, sidewall, the largest man-hole in the industry, and a sixty-six inch walk through bin door.

“We not only provide the farmer great grain storage, but fifteen years of grain design and operation experience,” said James Heald, J & P Grain Solutions.

Free tickets are available in advance at J & P Grain Solutions, other MATE Show exhibitors, and at First Interstate Banks. Admission at the door is $7.
