

Ten Teens Selected for 2010 NILE Scholarships

Ten teenagers have been named as 2010 recipients of college scholarships from the Northern International Livestock Exposition (NILE), each in the amount of $500. Scholarships were awarded to:

Mark Body of Alder, MT is the son of Ellis & Rhonda Boyd. After graduating from Sheridan High School, he plans to major in Agriculture Business and looks to a future in Land Management.

Dawnita Jo Deichmann of Hobson, MT is the daughter of Dan & Marilyn Deichmann. After graduating from Hobson Public School, she plans to major in Agriculture Education and teach agriculture at the high school level.

Hollie Deis of Park City, MT is the daughter of Kevin & Marlene Deis. After graduating from Park City High School, she plans to major in Communications and eventually have an agricultural related career in communications.

Brittney Klein of Max, ND is the daughter of John & Dawn Klein. After graduating from Garrison Public High, she plans to major in biology, and eventually get her masters in ruminant nutrition.

Clayton W. Moore of Joliet, MT is the son of H.L. & Florence Moore. After completing home schooling, he plans to major in Welding and some day own a custom welding business and continue ranching.

Mick Mosher of Shepherd, MT is the son of Jeff & Laurie Mosher. After graduating from Shepherd High School, he plans to major in Agriculture Business and then return to the family businesses.

Kevin Clay Ty Murnin of Miles City, MT is the son of Albert & Anita Murnin. After graduating from Custer County District High School, he plans to major in Agriculture Communications and eventually work in radio.

Kate E Richardson of Worland, WY is the daughter of Barry & Linda Richardson. After graduating from Worland High School, she plans to major in Range Management and/or Production Agriculture. Kate looks to a future in Range Management and eventually having a club calf ranch.

Tyler William Tintzman of Corvallis, MT is the son of Bret & Doris Tintzman. After graduating from Corvallis High, he plans to major in Agriculture Education and eventually have a career as an extension agent.

Justin Daniel Wacker of Plentywood, MT is the first recipient of the NILE AI's Bootery Outstanding Student Award, sponsored by Jim & Deedee Jussila of AI's Bootery in Billings, MT. Justin is the son of Lorrie Eggen. After graduation from Plentywood High School, he plans to major in Ag Business and eventually own and manage his own ranch.